"SEC. 931a. To enable the board of health to carry out the provisions of chapter 66 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, the sum of $1,000 is hereby appropriated as a special fund to be deposited in the Territorial treasury and to be a continual deposit, subject to the control of the board of health through its president, to be used from time to time in removing 'any such nuisance, foul or noxious odors, gases or vapors, water in which mosquito larvæ breed, sources of filth, or cause of sickness or disease' as contemplated or required by this chapter. All moneys withdrawn from such fund for such purposes shall be reimbursed or restored thereto so far as may be out of any moneys repaid or collected under the provisions of this chapter and shall then be available for further use."

Opium—Sale and Use. (Act 143, Apr. 23, 1915.)

SECTION 1. Section 2072 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 2072. Sale of opium.—The board of health may, upon the conditions to be named in such authorization, authorize any duly qualified physician or surgeon, or any person holding a license to sell poisonous drugs, to sell for medicinal purposes only, opium and preparations thereof: Provided, however, That no person shall sell or furnish opium or any preparation thereof, except upon the written prescription of a duly licensed physician signed by him, and such prescription shall be written in ink, bear the name of the person to whom issued, the date of its issuance, the time of its expiration, and state the maximum quantity that may be sold or furnished under such prescription."

SEC. 2. Section 2075 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 2075. Using or smoking opium; penalty.—Any person who shall use or smoke opium or any preparation thereof, or have the same in his possession, except as provided in sections 2072 and 2074, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10, nor more than $100, or by imprisonment not more than six months."

Insane Persons and Persons Addicted to Excessive Use of Drugs or Liquor—Care, Control, and Treatment. (Act 187, Apr. 27, 1915.)

SECTION 1. There shall be established and used in connection with the insane asylum of the Territory of Hawaii, a separate department, or branch thereof, to be known as the "detention house," which shall be specially designed and equipped for the active and special medical care and treatment of insane persons of the acute and curable class, or whose recovery or improvement would in the judgment of the commissioners of insanity be facilitated by their detention separate and apart from other inmates of the asylum whose character of affliction, conduct, or presence would tend to retard recovery in such apparently curable cases and where separate provision and accommodation may be made for patients more suitably with reference to their customary station in life and where patients may be separately maintained and treated wholly or in part at the expense of their own estate or relatives or other persons who may make provision therefor.

SEC. 2. Special ward.—There shall be a special ward in said detention house for the reception and special care, control, and treatment of persons not necessarily insane but committed thereto as patients addicted to the excessive use of drugs or liquor.

SEC. 3. For said purposes the board of health is hereby directed to select and set apart or acquire by purchase or otherwise suitable land upon which to erect a suitable building or buildings, and properly equip the same.

SEC. 4. Management of detention house.—Said detention house, including the special ward, shall be under the immediate management of the superintendent of the insane
